Fund staff member, Richard Muhlbacher has provided a printout indicating the level of Computer and data backup that is currently in place as a follow up to questions raised at the May meeting. Further discussions of the Fund's IT systems will be deferred until the recently hired permanent Executive Director is updated on the process.

The Fund has received an approximate 90% return on the signature letters that were mailed to all beneficiaries in early June. The Fund is utilizing a "Bar Coding" program that will assist in processing the Notarized documents and the creation of the second notice letters.

Mr. Kaczmarz indicated that Final copies of the Fund's December 31, 2018 Audited Financial Statements, The Fund's Independent Actuarial Valuation and GASB reports Have been distributed to all Trustees and thanked the Fund's Comptroller and her team for their diligent efforts. The Fund's CAFR and State of Illinois Department of Insurance reports would also be completed by June 30, 2019

LEGAL STATUS REPORT

Fund Counsel, David Kugler provided an update of cases currently pending.

Mr. Kugler reported that Attorney Krislov is requesting fees in the ongoing Underwood case involving hospitalization and continued subsidy of premiums for certain class members. All the Funds believe that the manner of calculation of Mr. Krislov's request would result in a diminishment of benefits.
